A temporary ban on the import of certain types of oil and petroleum products via vehicles into the territory of Kyrgyz Republic was introduced

A temporary ban on the import of certain types of oil and petroleum products via motor vehicles into the Kyrgyz Republic has been introduced. The relevant decision was signed by the Prime Minister of the Kyrgyz Republic Mukhammedkaly Abylgaziev.

The temporary ban on import of certain types of oil and petroleum products by motor transport is aimed at reducing the shadow economy and import of oil products into the country without proper accounting and registration.
