Employment

GRATA International law firm will hold an online conference on: ‘Labour Law Issues: Practical cases’

The employment practice of GRATA International covers a full range of services in the area of labour law, including advice on topical issues of labour law, development of employment agreements and policies, support in keeping HR records, labour audit, complex dismissals, etc.

Our employment attorneys are also renowned for their success in labour disputes. We have won dozens of court cases and our Clients include the largest transnational corporations.

The expertise of our employment specialists on the creation and implementation of employee stock ownership plans deserves special attention.

A significant number of our clients in the area of employment is represented by subsoil users, and we have accumulated extensive practical experience in important employment aspects of production activities such as rotation-based work, industrial injuries, negotiations with trade unions, etc.

Moreover, we are pleased to offer you our services in optimising work processes in your company in the current economic crisis. Reasonable staff downsizing, payroll optimisation, changes to the employees’ work function, remote work organisation, managing staff holidays, prevention of labour conflicts and strikes – these are just some of the examples of how a company can adjust work processes and adapt them to the current economic situation. Using a tailored approach, we will determine the optimisation methods that are best suited for your company.
