Absolute Advocates law firm, the GRATA International’s Mongolia office, has signed a Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation with GRATA International on 13 October 2017 as a further step in GRATA International’s strategy designed to provide comprehensive coverage in the Eurasian region and expansion of the Mongolian desk into a significant presence in Ulaanbaatar. Formerly, Bolormaa Volodya, an Executive director and Partner at Absolute Advocates law firm, has been the co-head of GRATA International’s Mongolian desk for the last 5 years.

Absolute Advocates is a relatively young & fast-growing law firm that provides full legal service to its local and foreign clients in Mongolia for the last 3 years in different fields of industry, including banking & finance, construction & infrastructure, mining, oil & gas, pharmaceutical & healthcare, technology, media & telecommunications, and transportation. We offer reasonable fees and flexibility to adjust to the needs of clients.

Our law firm is one of the few international law firms in Mongolia. If the client becomes a client of any of GRATA country offices, it is naturally considered a client of all GRATA offices in 20 countries.

The team members at Absolute Advocates law firm hold degrees from reputable local and foreign universities and are fluent in English, Russian, and Mongolian which enables them to communicate with clients smoothly.

Recent awards of the office:

- ▶ Certificate of Appreciation by World Bank Group for Contribution to Women, Business and the Law 2019;
- ▶ Certificate of Appreciation by World Bank Group for Contribution to World Bank Benchmarking Infrastructure 2020;
- ▶ Certificate of Appreciation by the World Justice Project for Contribution to Rule of Law Index 2020.
